

This Girl Can Madison Sparrow – Sunraysia Drag Racing Association

In the high speed adrenaline fuelled sport of Drag Racing every opponent is just another competitor who stands between you and the win light. Drag Racing does not discriminate between males and females, you win based on your ability and the countless hours of preparation put into both the car and driver.

My name is Madi Sparrow, I am 17 years old, live in Mildura Victoria and compete in the sport of Drag Racing.

I grew up like most normal active girls playing netball and basketball but at the age of 15 decided to turn things on their head and take up the sport of Drag Racing. My Dad and I have travelled to many events throughout Australia and I have managed to secure wins at two meetings. What I love about Drag Racing is the huge adrenaline rush when you prepare to launch down the dragstrip but I also love the comradery that is shared throughout the Drag Racing community, it really is one big happy, supportive family.

I plan to see where Drag Racing can take me and certainly am inspired by women competing locally, nationally and internationally who prove that “This Girl Can”.
