

This Girl Can

Natasha Anstee – Cricket Victoria - Participation Officer Mallee Murray Region

Being happy stay at home mum to my three wonderful daughters I thought life was pretty good.

That all changed when I applied for the Participation officer role with Cricket Victoria.

Having no university qualifications, I displayed that passion and hands on experience was in this case far more valuable.

When my application was successful I was blown away, a dream come true.

A great example of the motto “This Girl Can”

With the success of women’s sport in Australia I couldn’t be more honored to receive this role within my region.
